Cumberland County Democratic Committee Elects new Chair, new Officers

Camp Hill, PA — The Cumberland County Democratic Committee (CCDC) held their reorganization meeting this Sunday to elect officers for terms lasting through 2030. A new Chair, along with two new Vice Chairs, a new Treasurer, and a returning Secretary were elected unanimously.

Antonio Megna, former CCDC Strategic Planning Chair and community organizer, was elected as the new Chair of CCDC. He ran on a platform of inspiring Democrats across the county with stronger issue-based stances, more strategic support for candidates, and the goal of fully implementing the 2026-27 Strategic Plan including increased fundraising goals.

"I'm looking forward to working alongside our new officers to bring a more organized, effective Democratic Party to Cumberland County," said Antonio Megna. "The Democratic Party must return to our roots of supporting everyday people and common sense issues, and I intend to make that happen over the next four years."

Elected with Antonio were three new officers and a returning one. Katie Juliana, a Social Worker and local Young Democrats leader will serve as the First Vice Chair. Jeff Adams, a Carlisle non-profit founder and community leader was elected as the Second Vice Chair. Johnny Freidhoff, CCDC's Assistant Treasurer and an avid nature lover, will be the Treasurer. Toni Fitzgerald, CCDC's current Secretary appointed by the previous Chair will continue in her role.

The eligible voters for CCDC's reorganization include Precinct Committee People and State Committee members elected during the 2026 Primary on May 19th. The prior Chair, Matt Roan, decided to not run for re-election. Longtime First Vice Chair, Liz Reilly, also decided to not run for re-election.

"I am tremendously grateful for Matt and Liz's leadership and support over the past several years," said Antonio. "CCDC would not be in a position to support winning candidates and organize the over 61,000 Democrats across the county without their dedicated leadership. I'm excited to deliver wins for working families and Democrats across Cumberland over the next four years."
